

Diözesanmuseum
St. Afra Augsburg

Taking photos in the Diocesan Museum St. Afra

Effective 1st of January 2017

It is permitted to take photos at the museum's permanent exhibition for private, non-commercial use. Please refrain from using flashlights and tripods.

Photographing is not permitted at special exhibitions. Exhibits that are on loan from private collections or external institutions or that are labelled accordingly are not to be photographed.

For press photos or other special occasion photographs, including film and video, please contact the museum administration at museum.st.afra@bistum-augsburg.de or 0049-(0)821/3166-8831. Please arrange an appointment for photo shootings well in advance.

For further information on photographing the museum's artworks for non-private, commercial use please contact the administration at museum.st.afra@bistum-augsburg.de or 0049- (0)821/3166-8831.

The Diocesan Museum St. Afra at all times reserves the right to revoke permission to photograph exhibits on its premises.